Notification by the Meerut Agro Commodities Exchange Co. Ltd., Meerut.

The approval of the Director,

Forward Markets Commission, under sub-section (1) of section 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952 (74 of 1952), read with the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Notification No. S.O. 957 dated the 20th March, 1975 has been obtained on the 25th June, 1997 to the following amendment made to the Bye-laws of the Meerut Agro Commodities Exchange Co. Ltd., Meerut, the same having been notified under section 11 of the said Act and Rule 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1954.

AMENDMENT

Amendment to Bye-law of the Meerut Agro Commodities Exchange Co. Ltd., Meerut.

(1) Bye-law 2

"In the existing Bye-law 2, the figure Rs. 1000/- shall be substituted by the figure Rs. 2000/-."

(2) Bye-law 76.

In the existing Bye-law 76, the following shall be substituted :—

"The basis of gur hedge contract shall be 100% dry gur pansera of average quality No. 2 produced out of the crop of the year in Meerut, Muzaffarnagar, Sharanpur, Bulandshahar and Ghaziabad Districts and filled in new kattas."

(3) Bye-law 77

In the existing Bye-law, 77 the following shall be substituted :—

"Against the gur hedge contracts, gur Khurpapur shall also be tenderable. If the seller wants to deliver khurpapur the Purchaser shall have to accept the delivery of the same at a premium of 1 per cent of the delivery order rate/tender rate".

(4) For the existing Bye-law 81, the following shall be substituted :—

Bye-law 81: The composition of dry and wet gur per unit of tender of 4000 kg. packed in kattas and discount payable shall be as follows :

(i) For December and March Delivery :

The gur delivered will be 100% dry.

(ii) For May contract, the seller can deliver upto a maximum of 10% of wet Gur and in July contract the seller can deliver upto a maximum of 20% of wet Gur.

(iii) The discount to be allowed on wet gur delivered in May and July contracts will be restricted to the actual quantity of wet gur delivered and not on the maximum permissible limit of wet gur permitted for delivery in the contracts concerned.

(iv) The price to be paid for the actual quantity of wet gur delivered will be calculated at the rate of 90% of the delivery rate/tender rate for the May and July contracts and the buyer shall pay for the wet gur delivered accordingly.

Note :—(a) The above percentage given are for the number of kattas containing the goods to be delivered against the delivery order issued.

(b) If in any particular lot percentage of wet kattas is more than those prescribed in respect of each delivery the whole lot shall not be rejected but out of the same as many units as can be taken conforming to the prescribed Dry and Wet percentage of Kattas shall be taken and only the remaining lot shall be rejected.

Explanation of "Wet kattas" A katta of gur having "wet patch of 6"x6" or more shall be deemed to be as "WET KATTA".

(5) Bye-law 109(a)

The existing Bye-law 109(a) shall be substituted by the following :—

(i) the transaction fee on ordinary and bhiran transactions shall be in terms of percentage of standard value of the contract or standard contract value.

(ii) For contracts other than Bhiran transaction the transaction fee per unit of transaction would be 0.01 per cent of the standard contract value. For Bhiran transactions representing the matching of opposite nature of contracts of different clients appropriated by trading member for himself at the same rate on the same date, the transaction fee per unit of transaction would be 0.0015 per cent of the standard contract value.

(iii) The transaction fee so arrived at shall be rounded off to the nearest multiple of 5 paise. The transaction fee shall be worked out and announced by the Board every year during the month of January/February and shall be applicable to the whole of the following financial year from 1st April to 31st March.

(iv) Till 31-03-98, the transaction fee on Bhiran transaction would be Rs. 2.10 per unit, both on purchase and sale each. In respect of transactions other than Bhiran transactions, the transaction fee shall be Rs. 2.50 per unit, both on purchase and sale each.

(v) In addition, both buyers and sellers will be required to pay brokerage at the rate of Rs. 2.00 per unit, Building fund at the rate of Rs. 0.40 per unit and charity at the rate of Rs. 0.10 per unit. However no charity will be collected on Bhiran transactions.

Explanation :

The standard value of the contract or the standard contract value would be arrived at the following manner :—

(a) Take the average of the due date rates of the March, May, July and December hedge contracts of a Calendar year. This would be in Rupees per 100 Kg.

(b) Since the unit of trading is 4 metric tonnes or 4000 kgs. and the unit of price quotation is 100 kg. the multiplying factor is $4000/100 = 40$

(c) The standard value of the contract or the standard contract value would be equal to the average of due date rates multiplied by forty.

(6) Bye-law 85

For the existing Bye-law 85, the following shall be substituted :—

"On the due date of the gur hedge contract, the due date rate shall be fixed by the Board on the basis of the spot rate at Meerut for the basis variety of the gur hedge contract, taking into consideration, the spot prices prevailing at the upcountry delivery centres, the transport charges, other expenses/charges/levy, if any, and other relevant circumstance which the Board may, in their discretion, deem fit. The due date rate shall be fixed for 100% dry gur only.

The due rate so fixed by the Board shall not be higher than the maximum rate and/or lower than the minimum rate, if any, in operation. The due date rate shall also be subject to the limit on price fluctuation, if any, in force."
